The Christmas season officially ends with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord on January 13. During Advent, we heard the prophet St. John the Baptist herald the coming of Christ. On this day, we hear the story of how Jesus allowed Himself to be baptized by John. On the day we were baptized, we made promises (or, if we were babies, our parents and godparents made them our own behalf). At their core, our baptismal promises are about following Jesus on the path to Heaven.
